A photograph of the engine compartment of a silver Toyota Camry. The hood is open, revealing the engine, battery, and various fluid reservoirs. A large, semi-transparent watermark reading 'nure' is diagonally across the image.

The image shows the engine compartment of a 2006 Ford Focus. The engine is a 2.0L, 160 HP, 4-cylinder unit. A yellow and red "65 00" sticker is visible on the engine cover. The text "2006 FORD" and "SAE J1901" is printed on the engine cover. The car is white.
